WILLIAM BRADFORD HUIE

HARTSELLE, ALABAMA

[illegible] ember 15, 1970

Dear Mr. Webster:

My key file is open to any interested person. On it will be as soon as it can be collected again. I have given it to Arthur Agee, Junior, and I am in the process of delivering it to [illegible].

I no longer have any of it in my possession. When [illegible] and I thank God we've heard away a bundle of it. He is [illegible] completed. I [illegible] upon request.

I have also loaned some of it to George McMillan, who is writing a book for Little, Brown. I believe he expects to finish [illegible] and I plan to return the material, not to mention, to him then.

Finally, my lawyer in Nashville, John Pooker, still has [illegible] requests. I believe there is still some litigation [illegible] and I plan to return the material to [illegible].

[illegible] that you wrote to Mr. Hanes, Junior, the [illegible] letter, I [illegible] agrees fully to let you [illegible] at the end of life [illegible] accumulated by me, by the Hanes [illegible].

best wishes,

Bill Huie
